

KEVIN SPENCER'S MAGIC CAMP

AT RVCCARTS - JULY 9-13, 2018

International Magician of the Year Kevin Spencer teaches campers how to perform incredible tricks with everyday objects. This week-long, half-day camp combines learning magic tricks with storytelling, music, theatre and creative movement. Through the art of magic, campers will explore their curiosity, develop their magical creativity, and discover new confidence. Students will perform tricks with ropes, cards, rubber bands, paperclips, money, and even participate in a big illusion! Campers will also learn how to select music and write a script to go along with their presentation. At the end of the week, they will perform a live show for family and friends that will surely baffle and amaze!

Ages 8 – 16, half-day camp.

AM (Ages 8-10) and PM (Ages 11-16) sessions available.

A combined performance with campers from both sessions will take place at the Theatre on Friday, July 13 at 7pm.

Camp location: The Theatre at Raritan Valley Community College, Branchburg
Price per participant: $150

Each session is limited to 20 campers. Spencer provides all materials for participants including their magic box and all magic tricks that will be learned throughout the week.
